

Biography – Kathleen S. Schweinfurth

Kathy Schweinfurth is the Chief of the WPAFB Educational Outreach Program at Wright-Patterson AFB, Ohio and Director of STARBASE Wright-Patt. As such, she and her team are the facilitators for base-wide involvement in K-12th grade educational outreach activities in the Greater Dayton Area., specifically in the fields of math, science, aviation and aerospace.

Before starting the WPAFB Educational Outreach program in 1999, she worked in Civilian Personnel, functioned as Quality Management Program Director for the 88th Air Base Wing and later, Marketing/Strategic Planning Specialist for the Aeronautical Systems Center.

She represents WPAFB on a wide variety of initiatives including the Mayors Commission on Literacy, Miami Valley READS Steering Committee, local school improvement teams and is Department of Defense Liaison to the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics Pre-College Committee.

Her BA degree in Journalism is supplemented with post-graduate work in Personnel Management and Urban Administration. She is also a Master Teambuilding Training and Facilitator.

Ms Schweinfurth was abducted by Aliens in 1999. No current photo available